ALLIED BOERS QUARREL

[From Saturday's Daily.]

London, Jan. 11.—The Durban correspondent of the Standard, telegraphing Tuesday, says that 1200 Indian retcher bearers started for the front the previous night and that their departure was regarded in Durban as indicative of a renewal of the fighting.

The War Office announces that the list of British casualties at Ladysmith last Saturday has not been received.

The following dispatch, dated at Frere Camp, January 10th, noon, has been received from General Buller: "A Transvaal telegram gives the enemy's loss at Ladysmith on Saturday as four killed and fifteen wounded, and after this, as is admitted, they had endured a withering fire from six masked batteries and had been defeated at all points.

"Natives here assert that the Boer loss in one command alone was 150 killed and wagon loads of wounded. The heaviest loss is said to be among the Free Staters, who were forced by the Transvaalers into the most dangerous places."

"This curious dispatch is all the War Office issued. It makes not the slightest mention of the position or the doings of the British forces. It may be interpreted to mean that Ladysmith is safe, but it is more likely intended to prepare the British public for a terrible list of casualties."

A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph, dated Monday, January 8th, at noon, at Frere Camp, says: "Firing from the Boer positions around Ladysmith began early today. It still continues, but the cannonading is light and irregular."

The Standard has received the following, dated January 9th, from its special correspondent at Frere Camp: "I hear on good authority that President Kruger sent word to the Boer headquarters asking why Ladysmith had not been attacked, and that the reply was: 'We should lose too many men.'"

His answer to this excuse was the suggestion that the Free Staters might be put in the forefront. This hint was taken and the attack delivered. President Kruger's advice was so far good that the Free Staters behaved better than the Transvaalers have done. At all events they managed to seize a hill. Later in the day the Transvaalers re-appeared before General White's counter-attack amid the jeers of the Free Staters, who actually stuck to their position until they were bayoneted in the ditch. After this affair it is almost certain that the allies will quarrel."

"A heavy gun mounted on Umbulwan hill has been firing since day-break. Evidently the siege of Ladysmith is still maintained."

The Daily Mail has the following dispatch, dated January 8th, from Frere Camp: With the exception of the usual shelling of the Boer position by the naval guns, the British force was inactive. Eight Boer camps were seen today by a patrol along the Tugela in a westerly direction. All were quiet. Natives say that where the British reconnoitered near Colenso on Saturday the Boers hurried from Springfield. This supports the belief that Colenso was weakened to attack Ladysmith."

Cape Colony Dutch in Open Rebellion

London, Jan. 11.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing Monday, says: The Boer successes have been followed by a tremendous outburst of enthusiasm and Boer sympathy in the western part of the colony. Reports from Paarl say the whole district is made hideous at night by bands of young men parading in the villages and singing the Transvaal Volkslied, while the children are everywhere practicing the national songs of the republic. The following are specimens of statements believed by the western Dutch: "Buller and Rhodes are prisoners" and "Two thousand Boers secretly sailed and captured Cape Town."

Dispatches to the Cape Times from Indare, dated January 6th, say: "All three of the Colonial Dutchmen, forming the deputations sent by Commissioner of Public Works Sauer to protest to the Boer commandant against the invasion of Cape Colony, are either prisoners awaiting trial for sedition or

NATURE'S PROVISION FOR MAN.

When Nature designed man she provided ample things for his preservation. Man was intended to live and be healthy on vegetation; that was the natural way. The only way to be healthy or to regain lost health is by using nature's remedy and great blood purifier—Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. This is the great Indian remedy, taken direct from nature's unerring laboratory. It is made of simple herbs, roots and barks, and always acts naturally. It searches out the disease; finds the cause of it; slays it, and restores the body to a normally healthy condition. If your liver is sluggish, drowsy, or inactive; if your heart doesn't pump right, palpitate, thumps, sometimes vigorously; and sometimes faintly; if your bowels are inactive, or overactive; if your stomach falls you; if your kidneys fail to act naturally; there is still help for you if you will take Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. You must act quickly. Disease is progressive; you must stop it at once. Kickapoo Indian Sagwa will do it. Hobson Drug Co., agents for the Kickapoo Indian Remedies.
